More than 8,500 students from military families have benefited from the Educational Assistance Program of MOAA. MOAA's program provides interest-free loans and grants to students for up to five years of undergraduate study. If you need educational assistance for college, already are receiving an interest-free loan or grant from MOAA, or have questions about repaying your interest-free loan, be sure to check this site periodically. Here you'll find instructions about how to apply for a loan, deadlines for loan applications, and loan renewal and repayment information. www.moaa.org

Only dependent unmarried children under age 21 (23 if enrolled as a full time student) of active duty personnel, reserve/guard and retired military members, or survivors of deceased members, may apply for a scholarship. Applicants must be enrolled, or planning to enroll, in a full-time undergraduate degree program at an accredited college or university in the fall term of 2007. Applicants who have earned an undergraduate degree or who are enrolled in a graduate degree program are not eligible. All applicants must also have a minimum GPA of 3.0 (on a 4.0 basis) to be eligible to apply. www.militaryscholar.org
